INTERNSHIP EVALUATION CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Bowen Zhang, a student at the Singapore Institute of Management enrolled in the Diploma in Management Studies programme and holder of PRC Identity Card No. undertook an internship in the Research and Development Department of our company from 10 July 2026 to 10 August 2026, serving as a Research Assistant. During the internship, she strictly complied with all company rules and regulations, actively fulfilled her responsibilities, and successfully completed all assigned internship tasks. Her performance is assessed as follows:

Throughout the internship, she strictly observed the company's attendance and confidentiality policies. She approached her work conscientiously and responsibly, with rigour and close attention to detail. She proactively and humbly sought guidance from senior colleagues and quickly adapted to the pace and role requirements of the financial services industry. In terms of professional competence, she worked effectively with the team to complete a range of foundational tasks. Her principal duties included collecting and organising project materials; analysing industry policies and market data; assisting with project due diligence; organising initial drafts of service proposals; maintaining registers; proofreading documents; and drafting meeting minutes.

In summary, during her internship with our company, Bowen Zhang demonstrated diligence and reliability, strong learning ability, and excellent overall competence. She successfully completed all internship tasks, acquired preliminary practical skills relevant to investment and financing work, and performed to an excellent standard.

This certificate is hereby issued.
